Available now, this comfortable and well-located one-bedroom apartment offers a peaceful Caribbean lifestyle right on the waterfront in Beacon Hill. The apartment is fully furnished and equipped, including a washer and dryer, and comes with hurricane shutters for added security during the season. It features a spacious terrace directly facing the Caribbean Sea - perfect for enjoying the sound of waves, incredible sunsets, the view of passing boats. From the terrace, you also have a clear view of the Maho area in the distance. The unit is located in a small building. The area is gated with night-time security. Utilities are not included in the rent. It's within walking distance to Maho, where you'll find restaurants, shops, nightlife, and the famous Maho Beach...
